Net Gen Tennis Camp Wraps Up Second Year in King George County

Charlottesville, Virginia (7/1/2019) – QuickStart Tennis of Central Virginia, Inc. (QCV) is delighted to report former QCV President Tessa Pehanick recently wrapped up her second year of summer tennis camp for King George County Parks & Recreation.

Happy Campers! Fruit Frenzy — Berries Day

This year each Net Gen Tennis Camp session was themed with a different fruit. Over the week, participants received Go Bananas! posters, bracelets, drawstring bags and Go Bananas! cards for apples, bananas, berries, oranges and watermelon.

Tessa says, “Tennis camp this week was so fun! We did a Go Bananas Fruit Frenzy for the week and shared information about apples, bananas, berries, oranges and watermelon. I left camp with an empty basket each day! We had an unexpected bonus — two families shared their mulberries and wild raspberries for all to taste! Speed Stacks added to the fun as targets, and hiding towers for our added prizes. Thank you, QuickStart Tennis of Central Virginia for your never-ending support, and King George County Parks and Rec for providing this opportunity! Go Bananas!”

QCV QuickStart Coordinator Lynda Harrill adds, “We helped Tessa get youth tennis started last year in King George County. We’re so glad to see tennis has taken root there. Tennis and nutrition are an unbeatable combination. Go Bananas! makes it FUN!”
